

DCNM-LDANTE License for 1 Dante stream

DICENTIS

- ▶ Enables sending up to 100 interpreted languages as Dante audio streams
- ▶ Enables receiving up to 100 interpreted languages as Dante audio streams
- ▶ One license per stream required

This software license enables the sending or receiving of Dante audio streams, allowing the interfacing of the DICENTIS Conference System with other systems based on Dante and providing the ability to record the interpreted languages or to interface with a 3rd party discussion or interpreting system.

Functions

This DICENTIS license enables technicians to:

- Configure languages to be received as Dante multicast audio streams.
- Configure languages to be sent as Dante multicast audio streams.
- Each Dante audio stream, input or output, requires 1 Dante stream license. If you need to send 2 Dante streams and receive 3 Dante streams, you will need a total of 5 licenses.
- Configuration can be done using the Meeting Application or via the API.
